

17. Exposed Slopes on Individual Driveways

All cut or fill slopes made in the process of constructing driveways from the development roads to private dwellings shall be less than the critical angle of repose of the soil in which the cut or fill is made.